

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act is an excellent example of government waste. This would put an enormous burden and cost on business. Isn't it obvious? Please rescind this. Spend your time on issues that promote the economy, not stifle it.